

Sinclair is using the public airwaves to show partisan propaganda with the aim of influencing the upcoming presidential election. This is dispicable behavior. This happens when we allow media consolidation. The airwaves should be used for local programming meant to benefit a community not to persuade voters to vote for or against a candidate - especially when equal time is not allotted to the opposing candidate. Again, Sinclair's behavior is dispicable.